

FRESH SHEET

July 23—August 1

July 23, 30 Fat City Swing presents Swingin' in the Park!

Swingin' in the Park is Fat City's summer series of outdoor dancing. It starts July 2nd and continues most Friday nights from 7-9 throughout July and August at the Douglas Park bandshell (Douglas Crescent and 206th Street in Langley). Come dance in the open air under the setting sun to some amazing DJs - bring a blanket and join us or just come to enjoy some music and dancing!

July 25 Wine Your Engines Car Show

A Car Show hosted by Event Coordinator students from CDI College will be held on Sunday July 25 from 12:00-4:00pm at The Fort Wine Co in Fort Langley. A Fundraiser for BCAA Traffic Safety Child Car Seat Fund. This is a decade themed car show so you are welcome to dress up for the 20's 30's 40's 50's 60's or 70's Activities will include: Car Show Wine Tasting Food Prizes Kids activities

July 22-25 BC Summer Games

The BC Games are a stepping stone to higher level competitions for many young athletes who go on to represent their sport on Team BC at the Western Canada Summer Games or Canada Games and/or to compete at other national and international events, including the Olympic and Paralympic Games. Visit www.2010bcsummergames.org for more info!

July 28 Langley Thunder Home Game

The Western Lacrosse Association presents the Langley Thunder vs. the Maple Ridge Burrards at The Langley Events Centre. The game starts at 7:45pm, and tickets are: Adult (18-59) $10.00, Senior (60+) $7.50, Youth (6-17) $5.00. Buy them at the Langley Events Centre box office or at www.langleytickets.com

July 23-25 Aldergrove Fair Days

Aldergrove Fair Days is an event seen by 5,000+ people every year featuring rides, games, food vendors, entertainment stage, antique tractor pull, trade show, and piles of exhibits and fun for every age group!

July 28 Langley Community Farmers Market

Welcome vendors & customers alike to Langley's tastiest outdoor market. From May 26th through October 6th, 2010 each Wednesday from 3pm - 7pm in the Langley Bypass parking lot at the Kwantlen University Campus you will find more than 30 vendors that "Make it, Bake it or Grow it" selling the very best this region has to offer. www.lcfm.ca

July 23 Kids Can Bake Cooking Class

What would be better than homemade cakes and cookies made by your little pastry chef. Today's class will focus on the simple steps and chemistry involved in baking. This class is designed for kids that are 10-13 years old and is semi-hands on. Our kitchen is NOT a nut or shellfish free environment, please advise of allergies when registering. $45.00

July 31-August 2 Brigade Days at The Fort Langley National Historic Site

Walk through a traditional 19th century encampment, complete with canvas tents, muskets, and beans cooked over a fire. Brigade Days at Fort Langley National Historic Site is three days of historic demonstrations and interactive fur trade programs. Don't miss the arrival of the brigades on the Fraser River on Monday at 1:00pm and the FREE Concert as part of the Picnic in the Fort on Monday night, with musical guests LCMS Western Fiddlers and the Sumner Brothers!

For information on concerts at The Rose Gellert Hall at The Langley Community Music School, visit www.langleymusic.com

To find more events visit:
www.tourism-langley.ca/Experience/Festivals-and-Events

