

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December 9, 2010

Langley, BC Put the Langley Visitor Centre on your list of places to shop this holiday season. By the twinkling lights of the Krause Berry Farms Fraser Fir Christmas tree, you can find unique items for those on your list. “Langley is home to many wonderful artisans” says Christina Mynen, Visitor Services Coordinator “and we are happy to showcase them here in the Visitor Centre”.

Artisans represented are; Debra Kallen Art, delicious glass candy jewellery that you might just want to bite. Wild Ruby Silversmithing, hand forged silver creations made with love locally in Fort Langley. Allan Cusworth, wood turned pieces including gorgeous ornaments for your tree. Julie Bourn, Raku pieces such as whimsical trees, leaves and seahorses. Fort Langley Art Glass, hand crafted glass works of art. Cat & Mouse Designs, Deborah Strong’s hand painted silk scarves and 2011 calendar. Thunderfoot Studio, Vivian Harder’s equestrian and funky cat art cards.

Other items available in the Visitor Centre are Tuscan Farm Garden soaps and lotions, The Fort Wine Co.’s jellies and vinegars and a selection of Super Natural BC vests, sweatshirts and more.

Tourism Langley would also like to encourage the local businesses to come by and drop off an ornament to adorn the Christmas tree – to embrace the holiday spirit of the community. To all those who make their way over, we ask that you please bring a food hamper donation to support the Langley Christmas Bureau.

With all this fun and spirit Tourism Langley is excited to celebrate. Stop by on Friday December 17th to meet the Artisans, make your own work of art in the form of a Gingerbread house, and sample the very best in local fruit with The Fort Wine Company paired with a Big City Cupcake.

The Langley Visitor Center is open to shop for beautiful hand-crafted gifts (and complimentary gift wrapping) Monday thru Saturday 9am – 5pm at the Langley Events Centre 7888 200th St.

Media Contact:

Chelsea Forrester

Marketing Coordinator, Tourism Langley

P 604.888.1477 C 604.908.2453

chelsea@tourism-langley.ca