MEDIA ANNOUNCEMENT

The Board of Directors of Tourism Langley has accepted the resignation from their Executive Director Deborah Kulchiski, in order that she may pursue other opportunities. Ms. Kulchiski's last day of employment will be December 23, 2016.

"Deborah has provided leadership for the Destination Marketing Organization (DMO) serving the City and Township of Langley since its inception in 2007, through the 5-year renewal in 2011 and to the current required renewal anniversary," stated Board Chair Teri James. "Through the efforts, guidance and experience of Deborah, her staff, and current and former Boards of Directors of Tourism Langley, we have become a leader in the industry and served our communities well. We wish Deborah every success in her future endeavours".

"The future direction and leadership of Tourism Langley depends on a decision yet to be made by the Township of Langley Council, who are considering if their needs are being met under the current DMO or if they may be better served by a separate Township-centric organization", continued James. "The Tourism Langley Board of Directors is hopeful that Langley Township Council will be making a decision in the near future".
